²⁹ Men and brethren, I may freely speake vnto you of the Patriarche Dauid, For he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre remayneth with vs vnto this day. ³⁰ Therefore, seyng he was a Prophet, and knewe that God had sworne with an othe to hym, that Christe, as concerning the fleshe, should come of the frute of his loynes, and syt on hys seat, ³¹ He knowyng this befores, spake of the resurrection of Christe, That his soule should not be left in graue, nether his fleshe shulde se corruption. ³² This Iesus hath rayseed vp, wher of we all are wytnesses.

³³ Since now that he by the ryght hand of God hath bene exalted, and hath receaued of his Father the promise of the holy Gost, he hath shed forth this which ye now se and heare. ³⁴ For Dauid is not ascended into heauen, but he sayeth, The Lord sayd to my Lord, Syt at my ryght hand, ³⁵ Vntyl I make thy foes thy fote stole. ³⁶ So therefore, let al the house of Israel knowe for a surty, that God hath made him both Lord, and Christe, this Iesus I say whome ye haue crucified.

³⁷ When they heard this, they were pricked in their hartes, and sayd vnto Peter and vnto the other Apostles, Men and brethren, what shal we do? ³⁸ Then Peter sayd vnto them, Amend your liues, and be baptized

²⁹ Ye men, brethren, let me boldly speake to you of the Patriarch Dauid: that he died, and was buried: and his sepulchre is with vs vntil this present day. ³⁰ Whereas therefore he was a Prophet, and knew that by an othe God had sworne to him that of the fruite of his loynes there should sit vpon his seate: ³¹ forcing he the spake of the resurrection of Christ, for neither was he left in hel, neither did his flesh see corruption. ³² This Iesus hath God raised againe, vvhreeof al vve are witneses.

³³ Being exalted therefore by the right hand of God, and hauing receiued of his father the promise of the holy Ghost, he hath poured out this vvhom you see and heare. ³⁴ For Dauid ascended not into heauen: but he saith, Our Lord hath said to my Lord, sit on my right hand, vntil I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet. ³⁶ Therefore let al the house of Israel know most certainly that God hath made him both Lord, and CHRIST, this Iesus, vvhom you haue crucified.

⁴³ And ye toke vp the tabernacle of Moloch, and the starre of your god Remphan, figures which ye made, to worship them: therefore I wil remoue you beyonde Babylon. ⁴⁴ Our fathers had the tabernacle of witnes in the wylerneses, as he had appointed them, speaking vnto Moses, that he should make it according to the fashon that he had sene. ⁴⁵ Which tabernacle also, our fathers receaued and brought in with Iesus into the possession of the Gentiles, which God draue out before the face of our Fathers, vnto the dayes of Dauid:

⁶ And the Apostles and Elders came together to consider of this matter. ⁷ And when there had bene much disputing, Peter rose vp, and said vnto them, Men and brethren ye know how that a good while agoe, God made choise among vs, that the Gentiles by my mouth should

The Apostles and Elders, and brethren, send greeting vnto the brethren, which are of the Gentiles in Antioch, and Syria, and Cilicia. ²⁴ Forasmuch as wee haue heard, that certaine which went out from vs, haue troubled you with wordes, subverting your soules, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keepe the Law, to whom we gaue no such commandeement: ²⁵ It seemed good vnto vs, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men vnto you, with our beloued Barnabas and Paul, ²⁶ Men that haue hazarded their liues for the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ. ²⁷ Wee haue sent therfore Iudas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth. ²⁸ For it seemed good to the holy Ghost, and to vs, to lay vpon you no greater burden then these necessarie things: ²⁹ That ye abstaine from meates offered to idoles, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keepe your selues, yee shall doe well. Fare ye well.

³⁰ So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they deliuered the Epistle. ³¹ Which when they had read, they reioycied for the consolation. ³² And Iudas and Silas, being Prophetes also themselves, exhorted the brethren with many wordes, and confirmed them: ³³ And after they had taried there a space, they were let goe in peace from the brethren vnto the Apostles. ³⁴ Notwithstanding it pleased Silas to abide there still. ³⁵ Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

brought none accusation of such things as I supposed: ¹⁹ But had certain questions against him of their owne superstition, and of one Iesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. ²⁰ And because I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would goe to Hierusalem, and there be iudged of these matters. ²¹ But when Paul had appealed to bee reserued vnto the ^h hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept, till I might send him to Cesar.

²² Then Agrippa said vnto Festus, I would also heare the man my selfe. To morrow, said he, thou shalt heare him. ²³ And on the morrow when Agrippa was come and Bernice, with great pompe, and was entred into the place of hearing, with the chiefe captaines, and principall men of the cite; at Festus commaundement Paul was brought forth. ²⁴ And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are heere present with vs, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Iewes haue dealt with me, both at Hierusalem, and also heere, crying that he ought not to lue any longer. ²⁵ But when I found that he had committed nothing vvorthy of death, and that he himselfe hath appealed to Augustus, I haue determined to send him. ²⁶ Of whom I haue no certaine thing to write vnto my Lord: Wherefore I haue brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that after examination had, I might haue somewhat to write. ²⁷ For it seemeth to me vnreasonable, to send a prisoner, and not vvithall to signifie the crimes layd against him.

appeared vnto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witnes, both of those things which thou hast sene, and of those things in the which I will appeare vnto thee, ¹⁷ Deliuering thee from this people, and from the Gentils, vnto whome now I send thee, ¹⁸ To open their eyes, that they may tourne from darknesse to lyght, and frome the power of Satan vnto God, that they may receaue forgoeuens of synnes, and inheritance among them, which are sanctified by faith in me.

¹⁹ Wherefore Kyng Agrippa I was not disobedient vnto the heavenly vision, ²⁰ But shewed first vnto them at Damascus, and at Ierusalem, and throughout all the coastes of Iurie, and then to the Gentils, that they should repent, and turne to God, and do the ryght workes of repentance. ²¹ For this cause the Iewes caught me in the temple, and went about to kyl me, ²² Neuertheles, I obteyned helpe of God, and continue vnto thys day, witnessyng both to small and to great, saying none other things, then those which the Prophets and Moses dyd say should come.

²³ To wit, that Christ should suffer, and that he should be the fyrst that should ryse from the dead, and should shewe lyght vnto the people, and to the Gentils. ²⁴ As he thus answered for him selfe, Festus sayd with a loude voyce, Paul thou art besides thy selfe: much learnyng doth make thee mad. ²⁵ And Paul sayd, I am not mad most worthy Festus, but speake the wordes of trutheth and sobernes. ²⁶ For the Kyng knoweth of these things, before whom also I speake freely: neither thinke I that any of these things are hyd from him: for this thing was not done in a corner.

²⁷ King Agrippa, beleuest thou the Prophets? I wot well thou beleuest. ²⁸ Then Agrippa sayd vnto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to become a Christian. ²⁹ Then Paul sayd, I would to God that not only thou, but also all that heare me to day, ¹⁹ Vvherevpon, king Agrippa, I vvas not incredulous to the heavenly vision: ²⁰ but to them first that are at Damascus, and at Hierusalem, and vnto all the countrie of Ievvie, and to the Gentiles did I preach that they should doe penance, and turne to God, doing vvorkes vvorthie of penance. ²¹ For this cause the Ievves, vvhen I vvas in the temple, apprehending me, attempted meaning to kil me. ²² But aided by the help of God, I stand vntil this day, testifying to small and to great, saying nothing beside those things vvhich the Prophets did speake should come to passe, and Moyses, ²³ if CHRIST vvere possible, if the first of the resurrection from the dead, he vvere to shew lyght to the people and to the Gentiles.

²⁴ As he spake these things and made his ansver, Festus vvith a loud voyce said, Thou art mad, Paul: much learning turneth thee to madness. ²⁵ And Paul said, I am not mad, most excellent Festus: but I speake vvordes of veritie and sobrietie. ²⁶ For the king knoweth of these things, to vvhom also I speake constantly, for I thinke none of these things to be vvknown to him. For neither vvas any of these things done in a corner. ²⁷ Beleeuest thou the prophets, king Agrippa? I knowv that thou beleeuest. ²⁸ And Agrippa said to Paul: A litle thou persuadest me to become a CHRISTIAN. ²⁹ And Paul said, I vvish of God, both in litle, and in much, not only thee, but also

²⁴ And as hee thus spake for himselfe, Festus said with a loud voyce, Paul, thou art beside thy selfe, much learning doeth make thee mad. ²⁵ But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus, but speake forth the words of trutheth and sobernesse. ²⁶ For the King knoweth of these things, before whom also I speake freely: for I am perswaded, that none of these things are hid-den from him, for this thing was not done in a corner. ²⁷ King Agrippa, beleuest thou the Prophets? to strengthen you with all. ¹² That is, that I might receave exhortation together with you, through the common faith, which both ye and I haue. ¹³ Now my brethern I wolde that ye shuld not be ignorant, how that I haue often tymes purposed to come vnto you (but haue hene let hyther to) that I might haue some frute also among you, as I haue amonge other of the Gentils. ¹⁴ I am detter both to the Grekes, and to them which are no Grekes, vnto the wise-men, and vnto the ignorant. ¹⁵ Therefore, as muche as in me is, I am redy to preache the Gospel to you that are at Rome also. ¹⁶ For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christe, because it is the power of God vnto saluation to all that beleue, to the lewe fyrst, and also to the Greke. ¹⁷ For by it, the ryghtuousnes of God, is opened, from fayth to fayth: as it is written, The iust shal lyue by fayth. ¹⁸ For the wrath of God manifestly apareth from heauen against all vngodlynnes and vnryghtuousnes of men, because they withholde the truth vniustly:

¹⁹ Seyng that, which may be knowne of God, is manifest with in them: for God hath shewed it vnto them. ²⁰ For hys inuisible thynges, that is to say, his eternal power and Godhead, are vnderstand and sene, by the thynges made from the creation of the world to thintend that they shulde be wythout excuse: ²¹ Because that when they knewe God, they glorified him not as God, nether were thankfull, but waxed ful of vanities in their imaginations, and their folishe heartes were blynded. ²² When they counted them selues wise, they became foles: ²³ For they turned the glorie of the incorruptible God, to the similitude of the image of mortal man, and of byrdes, and foure footed beastes, and of creeping beastes. ²⁴ Wherefore, God gaue them euen vp vnto their heartes lust, vnto vnclennes, to defyle their owne bodies betwene them selues: ²⁵ Which turned the truth of God vnto a lye, and comforted together in you by that vvich is common to vs both, your faith and mine. ¹³ And I vvil not haue you ignorant (brethren) that I haue often purposed to come vnto you (and haue been staied hitherto) that I may haue some fruite in you, as also in the other Gentiles. ¹⁴ To the Greekes and the Barbarous, to the vvise and the vvvise I am detter. ¹⁵ so (as much as is in me) I am ready to euangelize to you also that are at Rome.

¹⁶ For I am not ashamed of the Gospel. For it is the povver of God, vnto saluation to euerie one that beleueeth, to the Iew first and to the Greeke. ¹⁷ For the iustice of God is reuealed therein by faith into faith: as it is vvritten: And the iust liueth by faith.

¹⁸ For the vvyrath of God from heauen is reuealed, vpon all impietie and iniustice of those men that deteine the veritie of God in iniustice: ¹⁹ because, that of God vvich is knovven, is manifest in them. For God hath manifested it vnto them.

²⁰ For his inuisible things, from the creation of the vvorld are seen, being vnderstoode by those thynges that are made: his eternal povver also and Diuinitie: so that they are inexcusable. ²¹ Because, vvhereas they knewe God, they haue not glorified him as God, or giuen thanks: but are become vaine in their cogitations, and their foolish hart hath been darkened. ²² for, saying them selues to be vvise, they became fooles.

²⁰ For the inuisible things of him from the Creation of the world, are clearly seene, being vnderstood by the thynges that are made, euen his eternall Power and Godhead, ⁷ so that they are without excuse: ²¹ Because that when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankfull, but became vaine in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened: ²² Professing themselves to be wise, they became fooles: ²³ And changed the glory of the vncorruptible God, into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birdes, and foure footed beasts, and creeping thynges: ²⁴ Wherefore God also gaue them vp to vnclennesse, through the lusts of their owne hearts, to dishonour their owne bodies betwene themselves: ²⁵ Who changed the truth of God into a lye, and worshipped and serued the

For the ende of those things is death. ²² But now being freed from synne, and made the seruantes of God, ye haue your frute in holines: and the ende, euerlasting life. ²³ For the wages of synne is death: but the gyfte of God, is eternal life through Iesus Christe our Lord.

7. KNOWE ye not brethren (for I speake to them that are skilful in the Lawe) how that the Lawe hath power ouer a man as long as he lyueth. ² For the woman which is in subiection to a man, is bounde by the Lawe to the man, as long as he lyueth: if the man be dead, she is loosed from the Lawe of the man. ³ So then, if while the man lyueth she couple her selfe with another man, she shalbe called an adulterer: but yf the man be dead, she is fre from that Lawe: so that she is not an adulterer, though she couple her selfe with another man. ⁴ Euen so ye my brethren, are dead also to the Lawe, in the body of Christe, that ye shulde be coupled to another, I meane to him that is rysen agayne from death, that we shulde bringe forth frute vnto God. ⁵ For when we were in the fleshe, the motions of synnes which were stered vp by the Lawe, bare rule in our members, to bring forth frute vnto death. ⁶ But now we are deliuered from the Lawe, being dead vnto yt, wherein we were in bondage, that we should serue in a newe conuersation of the Sprite, and not in the olde conuersation of the letter.

⁷ What shal we say then? is the Law synne? God forbid. Nay, rather I knewe not what sinne meant, but by the Lawe. For I had not known what lust had meant, except the Lawe had said, Thou shalt not lust. ⁸ But synne toke an occasion by the meanes of the commandement, and wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For verely without the Lawe, sinne is dead. ⁹ For I once was a lyue, without the Lawe:

but when the commandment came, sinne reuiued. ¹⁹ But I was dead : and the very same commandment which was ordeyned vnto life, was founde to be vnto me, vnto death.

¹¹ For synne take occasion by the meanes of the commandment, and so diseaued me, and by the selfe commandment slew me. ¹² Wherefore the Lawe is holy, and the commandment holy, iust, and good. ¹³ Was that then which is good, made death vnto me ? God forbyd, Nay synne is made death vnto me, when it begate death vnto me by the meanes of that which is good, that synne might be knowne : that is, that sinne by the meanes of the commandment, might be out of measure synful. ¹⁴ For we knowe, that the Lawe is spiritual : but I am carnal, solde vnder synne. ¹⁵ For I allowe not that which I do. for what I wolde, that do I not : but what I hate, that do I. ¹⁶ If I do then that which I wold not, I grante to the Lawe, that it is good.

¹⁷ So then now, it is not I that do it, but synne that dwelleth in me. ¹⁸ For I knowe, that in me, that is to say, in my fleshe, dwelleth no good thinge, for to wil, is present with me : but I fynde no meanes to performe that which is good. ¹⁹ For I do not that good thinge, which I wolde, but that euil do I, which I wolde not. ²⁰ Finally, if I do that I wolde not, then is it not I that do it, but synne that dwelleth in me. ²¹ I fynde then by the Lawe, that when I wolde do good, euyl lieth in me. ²² For I delite in the Lawe of God, concerning the inner man. ²³ But I se another lawe in my membres, rebelling against the lawe of my minde, and subduyng me vnto the lawe of sinne, which is in my membres. ²⁴ O wretched man that I am, who shal deliuer me from this body of death ? ²⁵ I thank God through Iesus Christ our Lord. So then I my selfe in my mynde, scrue the Lawe of God, and in my fleshe the lawe of synne.

Lavv sometime. But vvhen the commandment vvas come, sinne reuiued. ¹⁹ And I vvas dead : and the commandment, that vvas vnto life, the same to me vvas found to be vnto death. ¹¹ For sinne taking occasion by the commandment, seduced me, and by it killed me. ¹² Therefore the Lavv in deede is holy, and the commandment holy, and iust, and good.

¹³ That then vvhich is good, to me vvas it made death ? God forbid, but sinne, that it may appeare sinne, by the good thing vvrought me death : that sinne might become sinning aboue measure by the commandment. ¹⁴ For vve know that the Law is spiritual, but I am carnal, sold vnder sinne. ¹⁵ For that which I vvorke, I vnderstand not. for not that vvhich I vvil, the same do I : but vvhich I hate, that I doe. ¹⁶ And if that vvhich I vvil not, the same I doe : I consent to the Lavv, that it is good.

¹⁷ But novv, not I vvorke it any more, but the sinne that dvvelleth in me. ¹⁸ For I know that there dvvelleth not in me, that is to say, in my flesh, good. For to vvil, is present vvith me, but to accomplish that vvhich is good, I finde not. ¹⁹ For not the good vvhich I vvil, that doe I : but the euil vvhich I vvil not, that I doe. ²⁰ And if that vvhich I vvil not, the same I doe : novv not I vvorke it, but the sinne that dvvelleth in me. ²¹ I finde therefore, the Lavv, to me hauing a vvil to doe good, that euil is present vvith me. ²² For I am delighted vvith the lavv of God according to the invvard man : ²³ but I see an other lavv in my membres, repugning to the lavv of my minde, and captiuing me in the lavv of sinne that is in my membres. ²⁴ Vnhappie man that I am, vvho shal deliuer me from the body of this death ? ²⁵ The grace of God by Iesvs Christ our Lord. Therefore I my self vvith the minde scrue the lavv of God, but vvith the flesh, the lavv of sinne.

the commandment came, sinne reuiued, and I died. ¹⁰ And the commandment which was ordeined to life, I found to be vnto death. ¹¹ For sinne taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me. ¹² Wherefore the Law is holy, and the Commandment holy, and iust, and good. ¹³ Was that then which is good, made death vnto me ? God forbid. But sinne, that it might appeare sinne, working death in mee by that which is good : that sinne by the Commandment might become exceeding sinfull.

¹⁴ For wee know that the Law is spiritual : but I am carnall, sold vnder sinne. ¹⁵ For that which I doe, I ^a allow not : for what I would, that do I not : but what I hate, that doe I. ¹⁶ If then I doe that which I would not, I consent vnto the Lawe, that it is good.

¹⁷ Now then, it is no more I that doe it : but sinne that dwelleth in me. ¹⁸ For I know, that in me (that is, in my flesh) dwelleth no good thing. For to will is present with me : but how to performe that which is good, I finde not. ¹⁹ For the good that I would, I do not : but the euill which I would not, that I doe. ²⁰ Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sinne that dwelleth in me. ²¹ I finde then a Law, that when I would do good, euil is present with me. ²² For I delight in the Lawe of God, after the inward man. ²³ But I see another Lawe in my membres, warring against the Lawe of my minde, and bringing me into captiuitie to the Law of sinne, which is in my membres. ²⁴ O wretched man that I am : who shall deliuer me from ^b the body of this death ? ²⁵ I thanke God through Iesus Christ our Lord. So then, with the mind I my self scrue the Law of God : but with the flesh, the law of sinne.

8. THER is then now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Iesus, which walke not after the flesh: but after the Sprite. ² For the Lawe of the Sprite of lyfe which is in Christe Iesus, hath deliuered me from the lawe of synne, and death. ³ For what the Lawe could not do, in as muche as it was weake, because of the fleshe: God sending his owne Sonne in the similitude of synful fleshe, and that for synne, condemned synne in the fleshe: ⁴ That the righteousnes of the Lawe, myght be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the flesh, but after the Sprite. ⁵ For they that are carnal, are carnally wise: but they that are spiritual are affectionned to spiritual thinges. ⁶ For the wisdom of the fleshe, is death: but the wisdom of the Spirit, is life and peace: ⁷ Because that the fleshly wisdom is enmitie agaynst God: for it is not obedient to the Lawe of God: nether in deed, can be.

⁶ For the wisdom of the flesh, is death: but the wisdom of the spirit, life and peace. ⁷ Because the wisdom of the flesh, is anemie to God: for to the law of God it is not subiect, neither can it be. ⁸ And they that are in the flesh, can not please God. ⁹ But you are not in the flesh, but in the spirit, yet if the Spirit of God dwell in you. together with our Sprite, that we are the sonnes of God. ¹⁷ If we be sonnes: we are also heires, the heires I meane of God, and heires annexed with Christ: yf so be that we suffer together with him, that we may also be glorified together with him. ¹⁸ For I confirme, that the afflictions of this life are not worthy of the glorie which shal be shewed vnto vs. ¹⁹ For the feruent desire of the creature abyeth, lokyng when the sonnes of God shal appere. ²⁰ Because the creature is subiect to vanitie, not of it owne wil: but by reason of him which hath subdued it in hope.

²¹ Because the same creature also, shal be deliuered from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious libertie of the sonnes of God. ²² For we knowe that euery creature groweth with vs also, and trauieth in payne euen vnto this tyme. ²³ Not only the creature, but euen we also which haue the fyrst frutes of the Sprite, do sighe in our selues, and waite for the adoption, euen the deliuerance of our body. ²⁴ For we are saued by hope: but hope that is sene, is no hope, for how can a man hope for that which he seeth? ²⁵ But and yf we hope for that we se not, then do we with patience abyde for it.

²⁶ Lykewyse the Sprite also helpeth our infirmities: for we knowe not what to praye as we ought: but the Sprite asketh for vs with gronnyngs, which can not be expressed with tonge. ²⁷ And he that searcheth the heartes, knoweth what is the meaning of the Sprite: for he maketh intercession for the Sainctes, accordyng to the pleasure of God. ²⁸ Also we knowe that all thinges worcke for the best vnto them that loue God, which also are called of his purpose. ²⁹ For those which he knewe before, he also ordeyned before, that they should be made lyke fashioned vnto the image of his Sonne: that he myght be the fyrst begotten among many brethren. ³⁰ Moreouer, which he appoynted before, them also he called, and whome giueth testimonie to our spirit, that we are the sonnes of God. ¹⁷ And if sonnes, heires also: heires truly of God, and co-heires of Christ: yet if vve suffer vvith him, that vve may be also glorified vvith him.

¹⁸ For I thinke that the passions of this time are not condigne to the glorie to come that shal be reuealed in vs. ¹⁹ For the expectation of the creature, expecteth the reuelation of the sonnes of God. ²⁰ For the creature is made subiect to vanitie, not vvilling, but for him that made it subiect in hope: ²¹ because the creature also it self shal be deliuered from the seruitude of corruption, into the libertie of the glorie of the children of God. ²² For vve knowv that euery creature groweth, and trauielleth euen til now. ²³ And not only it, but vve also our selues hauing the first frutes of the spirit, vve also grove vvithin our selues, expecting the adoption of the sonnes of God, the redemption of our body. ²⁴ For by hope vve are saued. But hope that is seen, is not hope, for that vvich a man seeth, vvherefore doth he hope it? ²⁵ But if vve hope for that vvich vve see not: vve expect by patience.

²⁶ And in like maner also the Spirit helpeth our infirmite. For, vvhat vve should pray as vve ought, vve knowv not: but the Spirit him self requesteth for vs vvith gronings vvnspokeable. ²⁷ And he that searcheth the hartes, knowveth vvhat the Spirit desireth: because according to God he requesteth for the sainctes. ²⁸ And vve knowv that to them that loue God, all thinges cooperate vnto good, to such as according to purpose are called to be sainctes. ²⁹ For vvhom he hath for knowen, he hath also predestinated to be made conformable to the image of his sonne: that he might be the first-borne in many brethren. ³⁰ And vvhom he hath predestinated: them also he hath called, and vvhom he hath called: them also he hath beareth vvithes with our spirit, that we are the children of God. ¹⁷ And if children, then heires, heires of God, and ioynt heires with Christ: if so be that we suffer with him, that wee may be also glorified together. ¹⁸ For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time, are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shal be reuealed in vs. ¹⁹ For the earnest expectation of the creature, waiteth for the manifestation of the sonnes of God. ²⁰ For the creature was made subiect to vanitie, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subiected the same in hope: ²¹ Because the creature it selfe also shall bee deliuered from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious libertie of the children of God. ²² For wee know that the whole creation groaneth, and trauielleth in paine together vntill now. ²³ And not only they, but our selues also which haue the first frutes of the spirit, euen we our selues groane vvithin our selues, waiting for the adoption, to vvith, the redemption of our body. ²⁴ For we are saued by hope: but hope that is scene, is not hope: for vvhat a man seeth, vvhy doth he yet hope for? ²⁵ But if wee hope for that wee see not, then doe wee with patience waite for it.

²⁶ Likewise the spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not vvhat we should pray for as wee ought: but the spirit it selfe maketh intercession for vs vvith groanings, which cannot bee vttered. ²⁷ And he that searcheth the heartes, knoweth vvhat is the mind of the spirit, because he maketh intercession for the Sainctes according to the vvill of God. ²⁸ And wee knowe that all thinges worke together for good, to them that loue God, to them vvho are the called according to his purpose. ²⁹ For vvhom he did foreknow, hee also did predestinate to be conformd to the image of his Sonne, that he might bee the first borne amongst many brethren. ³⁰ Moreouer, vvhom he did predestinate, them he also called: and vvhom he called, them he also iustified:

⁶ Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel which are of Israel: ⁷ Neither because they are the seed of Abraham are they all children: but in Isaac shall thy seed be called. ⁸ That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed. ⁹ For this is the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sara shall have a sonne. ¹⁰ And not only this, but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac, ¹¹ (For the children being not yet borne, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth.) ¹² It was said unto her, The elder shall serve the younger. ¹³ As it is written, Iacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated. ¹⁴ What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid. ¹⁵ For he saith to Moyses, I will have mercie on whom I will have mercie, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

¹⁶ So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercie. ¹⁷ For the Scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my Name might be declared throughout all the earth. ¹⁸ Therefore hath hee mercie on whom hee will have mercie, and whom hee will, hee hardeneth. ¹⁹ Thou wilt say then unto mee; Why doeth hee yet find fault? For who hath resisted his will? ²⁰ Nay, but O man, who art thou that resistest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus? ²¹ Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump, to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour? ²² What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make

The vvord is nigh, in thy mouth, and in thy hart. This is the vvord of faith vvich vve preach. ⁹ For if thou confesse vvith thy mouth our Lord Iesus, and in thy hart beleuee that God hath raised him vp from the dead, thou shalt be saued. ¹⁰ For vvith the hart vve beleuee vnto iustice: but vvith the mouth confession is made to saluation. ¹¹ For the Scripture saith: Vhosoever beleueeth in him, shal not be confounded.

¹² For there is no distinction of the Iew and the Greeke: for one is Lord of all, riche toward al that inuocate him. ¹³ For euery one vvhosoever shal inuocate the name of our Lord, shal be saued. ¹⁴ How then shal they inuocate in vvhom they haue not beleued? Or how shal they beleuee him vvhom they haue not heard? And how shal they heare without a preacher? ¹⁵ But how shal they preach vviles they be sent? as it is vvritten: How beautiful are the fete of them that euangelize peace, of them that euangelize good things? ¹⁶ But al do not obey the Gospel. For Esai saith, Lord, vho hath beleued the hearing of vs? ¹⁷ Faith then, is by hearing: and hearing is by the vvord of Christ. ¹⁸ But I say, haue they not heard? And certes into al the earth about to establish their owne righteousness, haue not submitted themselves vnto the righteousness of God. ⁴ For Christ is the end of the Law for righteousness to euery one that beleueth. ⁵ For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the Law, that the man which doeth those things shall liue by them. ⁶ But the righteousness which is of faith, speaketh on this wise: Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? That is to bring Christ down from aboue. ⁷ Or, who shall descend into the deepe? That is to bring vp Christ againe from the dead. ⁸ But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, euen in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that is the word of faith which we preach. ⁹ That if thou shalt confesse with thy mouth the Lord Iesus, and shalt beleuee in thine heart, that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saued. ¹⁰ For with the heart man beleueth vnto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made vnto saluation. ¹¹ For the Scripture saith, Whosoever beleueth on him, shall not be ashamed.

¹² For there is no difference betweene the Iew and the Greeke: for the same Lord ouer all, is rich vnto all, that call vpon him. ¹³ For whosoever shall call vpon the Name of the Lord, shall be saued. ¹⁴ How then shall they call on him in whom they haue not beleued? and how shall they beleuee in him, of whom they haue not heard? and how shall they heare without a Preacher? ¹⁵ And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written: How beautiful are the fete of them that preach the Gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things! ¹⁶ But they haue not all obeyed the Gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath beleueed our report? ¹⁷ So then, faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. ¹⁸ But I say, haue they not heard? yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, alvaines crooked. ¹¹ I say then, haue they so stombled, that they should fall? God forbid. but by their offence, saluation is to the Gentils, that they may emulate them. ¹² And if the offence of them be the riches of the vvorld, and the diminution of them the riches of the Gentils : hovv much more the fulnesse of them?

¹³ For to you Gentils I say, as long verely as I am the Apostle of the Gentils, I vil honour my ministerie. ¹⁴ If by any meanes I may prouoke my flesh to emulation, and may saue some of them. ¹⁵ For if the losse of them be the reconciliation of the vvorld : vvhat shal the receiuing be, but life from the dead? ¹⁶ And if the first fruite be holy, the masse also : and if the roote be holy, the boughes also. ¹⁷ And if some of the boughes be broken, and thou vvheras thou vvast a vvilde oliue, art graffed in them, and art made partaker of the roote and of the fatnesse of the oliue, ¹⁸ glorie not against the boughes. And if thou glorie : not thou bearest the roote, but the roote thee. ¹⁹ Thou saiest then : the boughes vvere broken, that I might be graffed in. ²⁰ Vvel : because of incredulitie they vvere broken, but thou by faith doest stand : be not to highly vvise, but feare.

²¹ For if God hath not spared the natural boughes : lest perhaps he vvil not spare thee neither. ²² See then the goodnes and the seueritie of God : vpon them surely that are fallen, the seueritie : but vpon thee the goodnes of God, if thou abide in his goodnesse, otherwise thou also shalt be cut of. ²³ But they also, if they do not abide in incredulitie, shal be graffed in. for God is able to graffe them in agayne. ²⁴ For if thou vvast cut out of the natural vvilde oliue, and contrarie to nature vvast graffed into the good oliue : hovv much more they that are according to nature, shal be graffed into their ovvne oliue?

and bow downe their backe alway. ¹¹ I say then; Haue they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid. But rather through their fall, saluation is come vnto the Gentiles, for to prouoke them to ielousie. ¹² Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them, the riches of the Gentiles : how much more their fulnesse?

¹³ For I speake to you Gentiles, in as much as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles, I magnifie mine office : ¹⁴ If by any meanes I may prouoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and might saue some of them. ¹⁵ For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world : what shall the receiuing of them be, but life from the dead? ¹⁶ For if the first fruit bee holy, the lump is also holy : and if the roote be holy, so are the branches. ¹⁷ And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou being a wilde oliue-tree wert graffed in amongst them, and with them partakest of the roote and fatnesse of the Oliue tree : ¹⁸ Boast not against the branches : but if thou boast, thou bearest not the roote, but the roote thee.

¹⁹ Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be graffed in. ²⁰ Well : because of vnbeliefe they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not high minded, but feare. ²¹ For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest hee also spare not thee. ²² Beholde therefore the goodness and seueritie of God : on them which fell, seueritie ; but toward thee, goodness, if thou continue in his goodness : otherwise thou also shalt be cut off. ²³ And they also, if they bide not still in vnbeliefe, shall be graffed in : for God is able to graffe them in agayne. ²⁴ For if thou wert cut out of the Oliue tree which is wilde by nature, and wert graffed contrary to nature into a good Oliue tree : how much more shall these which be the natural branches, bee graffed into their owne Oliue tree?

nearer, then when we beleued it. ¹² The nyght is passed, and the day hath come vnto vs. let vs therefore cast away the dedes of darkenes, and let vs put on the armour of light. ¹³ So that we walke honestly, as it were in the day light: not in glotonie, and dronkennes, nether in chambering and wantonnes, nether in stryfe and enuiing; ¹⁴ But put ye on the Lord IESVS CRISTE, and take no thought for the flesh, to fulfill the lustes of it.

And he that eateth, eateth to our Lord: for he giueth thanks to God. And he that eateth not, to our Lord he eateth not, and giueth thanks to God. ⁷ For none of vs liueth to him self: and no man dieth to him self.

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellencie of speech, or of wisdom, declaring vnto you the testimony of God. ² For I determined not to knowe any thing among you, saue Iesus Christ, and him crucified. ³ And I was with you in weakness, and in feare, and in much trembling. ⁴ And my speech, and my preaching was not with ⁵ enticing wordes of mans wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit, and of power: ⁶ That your faith should not ⁷ stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

⁶ Howbeit wee speake wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this worlde, nor of the Princes of this worlde, that come to nought: ⁷ But we speake the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom which God ordeined before the world, vnto our glory. ⁸ Which none of the princes of this worlde knew: for had they knowne it, they would not haue crucified the Lord of glory. ⁹ But as it is written, Eye hath not seene, nor eare heard, neither haue entred into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that loue him. ¹⁰ But God hath revealed them vnto vs by his Spirit:

For the temple of God is holy: vvvhich you are. ¹⁸ Let no man seduce him self: if any man seeme to be wise among you in this world, let him become a foole that he may be wise. ¹⁹ For the vvisedom of this vvorld is folishnes vvith God. iudgement. no, I iudge not myne owne selfe. ⁴ For I knowe noight by my selfe :
yet am I not thereby iustified : but the Lord is he that iudgeth me. ⁵ Therefore iudge nothing before the tyme, vntyl the Lord come, which wyl lighten thinges that are hyd in darknes, and open the counsels of the hartes : and then shal euery man haue prayse of God. ⁶ These thinges brethren I haue figuratiuely described in myne owne person and Apollos, for your sakes : that ye myght learne by vs, that no man counte of hym selfe beyonde that which is aboue written : that one swel not against another for any mans cause. ⁷ For who prefereth thee ? and what hast thou, that thou hast not re-reioyseth thou, as though thou baddest ye are made riche, ye raygne as kynges raygne, that we also might raygne with you.

⁹ For I thinke that God hath appoynted vs the laste Apostles, as it were men destinate to death, for we are a gasying stocke vnto the worlde, and to the Angels, and to men. ¹⁰ We are foles for Christes handes, we are reuyled, and yet we blesse :

we are persecuted, and suffer it. ¹³ We of mans day : but I iudge not my self neither. ⁴ For I am not guilty in conscience of any thing : but I am not iustified herein : but he that iudgeth me, is our Lord. ⁵ Therefore iudge not before the time : vntil our Lord do come, vvhich also wil lighten the hidden thinges of darkenes, and vvil manifest the counsels of the hartes : and then the praise shal be to euery man of God.

⁶ But these thinges, brethren, I haue transfigured into my self and Apollo, for you : that in vs you may learne, one not to be puffed vp against another, aboue that is vwritten. ⁷ For vvhich discerneth thee ? Or vvhich hast thou that thou hast not receiued ? And if thou hast receiued, what doest thou glorie as though thou hast not receiued ? ⁸ Now you are filled, now are you become riche : without vs
you reigne : and I would to God you did reigne, that vve also might reigne vwith
you.

⁹ For I thinke that God hath shevved vs Apostles the last, as it vvere deputed to death : because vve are made a spectacle to the vworld, and to Angels and men. ¹⁰ Vve are foolles for Christ : but you vvisse in Christ. vve vveake : but you strong, you noble, but vve base. ¹¹ Vntil
this houre we doe both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are beaten vwith buf-fets, and are vvanderers, ¹² and labour vvorking vvith our ovvne handes. vve are cursed : and do blesse. vve are persecuted : and susteine it. ¹³ vve are blasphemed :
and vve beseeche. vve are made the refuse of this vvorld, the drosse of all euen vntil iudge not mine owne selfe. ⁴ For I know nothing by my selfe, yet am I not hereby iustified : but hee that iudgeth me is the Lord.

⁵ Therefore iudge nothing before the time, vntill the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden thinges of darke-nesse, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts : and then shall euery man haue praise of God. ⁶ And these thinges, brethren, I haue in a figure transferred to my selfe, and to Apollo, for your sakes : that yee might learne in vs not to thinke of men, aboue that which is written, that no one of you to be puffed vp for one against another. ⁷ For who maketh thee to differ from another ?
And what hast thou that thou didst not recieve ? Now if thou didst recieve it, why dost thou glory as if thou hadst not recieved it ? ⁸ Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye haue reigned as Kings without vs, and I would to God ye did reigne, that we also might reigne with you.

⁹ For I thinke that God hath set forth vs the Apostles last, as it were approued to death. For wee are made a spectacle vnto the world, and to Angels, and to but ye are wise in Christ. Wee are weake, but yee are strong : yee are honourable, but we are despised. ¹¹ Euen vnto this present houre wee both hunger and thirst, quied, wee blesse : being persecuted, we

we are made as the filth of the world, begotten you through the Gospel. ¹⁶ Wherefore, I pray you followe me. ¹⁷ For this cause haue I sent vnto you Timotheus, which is my deare sonne, and faithful in the Lord, which shall put you in remembrance of my wayes in Christe, euen as I teache euery where in all Congregations. ¹⁸ So me swel as thogh I wold not come to you. ¹⁹ But I wil come to you shortly, yf God wyl, and wyl knowe, not the speache of them which swel, but the spiritual power. ²⁰ For the kyngdome of God is not in wordes, but in the power of the Spirit. ²¹ What wyl ye? shal I come vnto you with a rod, or els in loue and in the sprit of mekenes?

5. IT is heard for a trueth that there is fornication among you, and suche fornication among you, and suche fornication as is not once named among the Gentils: that one should interteyne hys fathers wife. ² And ye swel, and haue not rather sorowed, that he which hath done this dede, myght be put from among you. ³ For I verely as absent in body, but present in spirit, haue determined already as thogh I were present, that he that hath in thyis sort done this dede, ⁴ When ye are gathered together, and my spirite, in the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, that such one I say, by the power of our Lord Iesus Christ, ⁵ Be deliuered vnto Satan, for the destruction of the fleshe, that the spirite may be saued in the day of the Lord Iesus.

5. THERE is plainly heard fornication among you, and such fornication, as the like is not among the heathen, so that one hath his fathers vvife. ² And you are puffed vp: and haue not mourned rather, that he might be taken away from among you, that hath done this deede.

³ I in deede absent in body, but present in spirit, haue already iudged, as present, him that hath so done, ⁴ in the name of our Lord Iesvs Christ, you being gathered together and my spirit, vvith the vertue of our Lord Iesvs ⁵ to deliuer such an one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saued in the day of our Lord Iesvs Christ. ⁶ Your glorying is not good. Knowv you not that a hile leauen corrupteth the vvhole paste?

⁷ Purge the old leauen, that you may be a newv paste, as you are azymes. For our Pasche, Christ, is immolated, ⁸ Therefore let vs feast, not in the old leauen, nor in the leauen of malice and vvickednes, but in the azymes of sinceritie and veritie.

⁹ I vvrote to you in an epistle, Not to keepe companie vvith fornicatours. ¹⁰ I meane not the fornicatours of this vvord, or the

IT is reported commonly, that there is fornication among you, and such fornication, as is not so much as named amongst the Gentiles, that one should haue his fathers wife. ² And yee are puffed vp, and haue not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed, might bee taken away from among you. ³ For I verily as absent in body, but present in spirit, haue ⁴ iudged alreadie, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed, ⁴ In the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, when yee are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Iesus Christ, ⁵ To deliuer such a one vnto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may bee saued in the day of the Lord Iesus. ⁶ Your glorying is not good: know ye not that a little leauen leauenth the whole lump? ⁷ Purge out therefore the old leauen, that ye may be a new lump, as yee are vneleavened. For euen Christ our Passeeover ⁸ is sacrificed for vs. ⁸ Therefore let vs keepe the Feast, not with old leauen, neither with the leauen of malice and wickednesse: but with the vneleavened bread of sinceritie and trueth.

8. AS touching things sacrificed vnto idols, we knowe that we all haue knowledge. knowledge maketh a man swel, but loue edifieth. ² If any man seme to him selfe that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know. ³ But yf any man loue God, the same is taught of him. ⁴ To speake therefore of meat sacrificed vnto idols, we knowe that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one. ⁵ And thogh ther be that are called goddes, whether in heauen, other in earth, (as there be many goddes, and many Lordes) ⁶ Yet vnto vs there is but one God, which is the Father, of whom are all thynges, and we in him: and one Lord Iesus Christ by whom are all thynges, and we by him.

⁷ But euery man hath not that knowledge. for some hauing conscience because of the idol vntil this houre, eat as a thing offered vnto the idolles, and so their conscience byngne yet weake, is defyled. ⁸ But meat maketh vs not acceptable to you, but to that vvich is honest, and that may giue you pover vvithout impediment to attend vpon our Lord.

³⁶ But if any man thinke that he seemeth dishonoured vpon his virgin, for that she is past age, and if it must so be, let him doe that he vvil. He sinneth not if she marie. ³⁷ For he that hath determined in his hart being settled, not hauing necessitie, but hauing pover of his owne vvil, and hath iudged this in his hart, to keepe his virgin, doeth vvell. ³⁸ Therefore both he that ioyneth his virgin in matrimonie, doeth vvell: and he that ioyneth not, doeth better.

³⁹ A vvoman is bound to the law so long time as her husband liueth: but if her husband slepe, she is at libertie: let her marie to vvhom she vvil: only in our Lord. ⁴⁰ But more blessed shal she be, if she so remaine, according to my counsel, and I thinke that I also haue the Sprite of God.

8. AND concerning those things that are sacrificed to Idols, we knowv that vve al haue knowledge. Knowledge puffeth vp: but charitie edifieth. ² And if any man thinke that he knoweth something, he hath not yet knowen, as he ought to knowv. ³ But if any man loue God, the same is knowen of him. ⁴ But as for the meates that are immolated to Idols, vve knowv that an Idol is nothing in the vvorld, and that there is no God, but one. ⁵ For although there be that are called gods, either in heauen, or in earth (for there are many gods, and many lordes) ⁶ yet to vs there is one God, the Father, of vvhom al thyngs, and vve vnto him: and one Lord, Iesvs Christ, by vvhom al thyngs, and vve by him.

⁷ But there is not knowledge in al. For some vntil this present vvith a conscience of the Idol, eate as a thing sacrificed to Idols: and their conscience being vvake, is polluted. ⁸ But meate doth not cast a snare vpon you, but for that which is comely, and that you may attend vpon the Lord without distraction. ³⁶ But if any man thinke that he behaueth himselfe vncomely toward his virgin, if she passe the flowre of her age, and neede so require, let him doe what hee will, hee sinneth not: let them marrie.

³⁷ Neuerthelesse, hee that standeth stedfast in his heart, hauing no necessitie, but hath power ouer his owne wil, and hath so decreed in his heart that hee will keepe his virgin, doeth well. ³⁸ So then he that giueth her in mariage doeth well: but he that giueth her not in mariage, doth better. ³⁹ The wife is bound by the Lawe as long as her husband liueth: but if her husband bee dead, shee is at libertie to bee married to whom shee wil, only in the Lord. ⁴⁰ But shee is happier if shee so abide, after my iudgement: and I thinke also that I haue the Sprite of God.

8. NOWas touching things offered vnto idolles, wee know that wee all haue knowledge. Knowledge puffeth vp: but Charitie edifieth. ² And if any man thinke that hee knoweth any thing, hee knoweth nothing yet as hee ought to know. ³ But if any man loue God, the same is knowen of him. ⁴ As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice vnto idolles, wee know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.

as a litle onc, I thought as a litle one. But vhen I vvas made a man, I did avay the things that belonged to a litle one. ¹² Vve see novv by a glasse in a darke sort: but then face to face. Novv I knovv in part: but then I shal knovv as also I am knovven. ¹³ And novv there remaine, faith, hope, charitie, these three. but the greater of these is charitie.

14. FOLOVV Charitie, earnestly pursue spiritual things: but rather that you may prophecie. ² For he that speaketh vvith tongue, speaketh not to men, but to God: for no man heareth. But in spirit he speaketh mysteries. ³ For he that prophecieth, speaketh to men vnto edification, and exhortation, and consolation. ⁴ He that speaketh vvith tongues, edifieth him self: but he that prophecieth, edifieth the Church. ⁵ And I would haue you all to speake vvith tongues, but rather to prophecie. For greater is he that prophecieth, then he that speaketh vvith tongues: vnlesse perhaps he interpret, that the Church may take edification. ⁶ But novv brethren if I come to you speaking vvith tongues: vvhat shal I profit you, vnlesse I speake to you either in reuelacion, or in knowledge, or in prophecie, or in doctrine? ⁷ Yet the things vvithout life that geue a sound, be it pipe or harpe, vnlesse they geue a distinction of sounds, howv shal that be knowen which is piped, or which is harped? ⁸ For if the trumpet geue an vncertaine voyce, vvho shal prepare him selfe to battel? ⁹ So you also by a tongue vnlesse you vtter manifest speech, howv shal that be knowen that is said? for you shal be speaking into the aire.

¹⁰ There are (for example) so many kindes of tongues in this vvorld, and none is vvithout voyce. ¹¹ If then I knovv not the vertue of the voyce, I shal be to him to vvhom I speake, barbarous: and he that speaketh, barbarous to me. ¹² So you also, because you be emulators of spirities:

vnderstood as a childe, I *thought as a childe: but when I became a man, I put away childish things. ¹² For now we see through a glasse, ^b darkely: but then face to face: now I know in part, but then shall I knowe euen as also I am knowen. ¹³ And now abideth faith, hope, charitie, these three, but the greatest of these is charitie.

14. FOLLOW after charitie, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather that yee may prophesie. ² For he that speaketh in an unknownen tongue, speaketh not vnto men, but vnto God: for no man vnderstandeth him: howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries. ³ But he that prophesieth, speaketh vnto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort. ⁴ He that speaketh in an unknownen tongue, edifieth himselfe: but hee that prophesieth, edifieth the Church. ⁵ I would that yee all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is hee that prophesieth, then hee that speaketh with tongues, except hee interpret, that the Church may receive edifying. ⁶ Now brethren, if I come vnto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speake to you either by reuelacion, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine? ⁷ And euen things without life giuing sound, whether pipe or harpe, except they giue a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped? ⁸ For if the trumpet giue an vncertaine sound, who shall prepare himselfe to the battell? ⁹ So likewise you, except ye vtter by the tongue wordes *easie to be vnderstood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speake into the aire.

¹⁰ There are, it may bee, so many kindes of voyces in the world, and none of them are without signification. ¹¹ Therefore if I knowe not the meaning of the voyce, I shall bee vnto him that speaketh, a Barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a Barbarian vnto mee. ¹² Euen so yee, as ye couet spiritual gifts, seke ye that ye may excel vnto the edifying of the Church. ¹³ Wherefore, let him that speaketh the tongues, praye, that he may interpret also: ¹⁴ For if I pray in a strange tongue, my spirite prayeth: but my vnderstanding is with out fruite. ¹⁵ What is it then? 1. PAUL an Apostle of Iesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothee our brother, vnto the Church of God, which is at Corinth, with all the Saints, which are in all Achaia: ² Grace bee to you and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ. ³ Blessed be God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort, ⁴ Who comforteth vs in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort, wherewith we our selues are comforted of God. ⁵ For as the sufferings of Christ abound in vs, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

⁶ And whether wee be afflicted, it is for your consolation and saluation, which is effectually in the enduring of the same sufferings, which wee also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation, and saluation. ⁷ And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that as you are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

⁸ For we would not, brethren, haue you ignorant of our trouble which came to vs

4. THEREFORE, seying that we haue this office, as we haue receaued mercie, we faynte not: ² But haue cast from vs the clokes of shame and walke not in craftines, nether handle we the worde of God deceitfully: but in declaration of the trueth, report our selues to euery mans conscience in the syght of God. ³ If our Gospel be hyd, it is hyd to them, that are lost. ⁴ In whom the god of this worlde hath blinded the mindes, that is, in the infideles, lest the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, which is the image of God, should shyne vnto them.

⁵ For we preache not our selues, but Christ Iesus the Lord, and our selues your seruantes, for Iesus sake. ⁶ For God that commanded the lyght to shyne out of darknes, is he which hath shyned in our hearts, for to geue the lyght of the knowledge of the glorie of God, in the face of reason of the excelleng glorie. ¹¹ For if that which is made void, is by glorie: much more that vvhich abideth, is in glorie.

¹² Hauing therefore such hope, vve vse much confidence: ¹³ and not as Moyses put a vele vpon his face, that the children of Israel might not behold his face, vvhich is made void, ¹⁴ but their senses vv ere dulled. For vntil this present day, the self same vele in the lecture of the old testament remaineth vv reuealed (because in Christ it is made void) ¹⁵ but vntil this present day, vvhen Moyses is read, a vele is put vpon their hart. ¹⁶ But vvhen he shal be conuerted to our Lord, the vele shal be taken avay. ¹⁷ And our Lord is a Spirit. And vvhere the Spirit of our Lord is, there is libertie. ¹⁸ But vve all, beholding the glorie of our Lord vvith face reuealed, are transformed into the same image from glorie vnto glorie, as of our Lordes Spirit.

4. THEREFORE hauing this ministracion: according as vve haue obtained mercie, vve faile not, ² but vve renounce the secrette things of dishonestie, not walking in craftines, nor adulterating the vvord of God, but in manifestation of the trueth commendng our selues to euery conscience of men before God. ³ And if our Gospel be also hidde, in them that perish it is hidde, ⁴ in vvhom the God of this vvorld hath blinded the mindes of the infidels, that the illumination of the Gospel of the glorie of Christ vvho is the image of God, might not shine to them.

reason of the glorie that excelleth. ¹¹ For if that which is done away, was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

¹² Seeing then that wee haue such hope, we vse great plainnesse of speeche. ¹³ And not as Moses, which put a vaille ouer his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly looke to the end of that which is abolished: ¹⁴ But their mindes were blinded: for vntill this day remaineth the same vaille vtaken away, in the reading of the old testament: which vaille is done away in Christ. ¹⁵ But euen vnto this day, when Moses is read, the vaille is vpon their heart. ¹⁶ Neuerthelesse, when it shall turne to the Lord, the vaille shal be taken away. ¹⁷ Now the Lord is that spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is libertie. ¹⁸ But we all, with open face beholding as in a glasse the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image, from glorie to glorie, euen as ^b by the spirit of the Lord.

4. THEREFORE, seeing we haue this ministry, as we haue receiued mercie we faint not: ² But haue renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftines, nor handling the word of God deceitfully, but by manifestation of the trueth, commendng our selues to euery mans conscience, in the sight of God. ³ But if our Gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: ⁴ In whom the God of this world hath blinded the minds of them which beleene not, lest the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine vnto them. ⁵ For we preach not our selues, but Christ Iesus the Lord, and our selues your seruants for Iesus sake.

shai not be founde naked. ⁴ For in dede we that are in this tabernacle, syghe and are burdened, wherein whiles we are, we wolde not be vnclodeth, but wolde be clothed vpon, that mortalitie myght be swalowed vp of lyfe. ⁵ He that hath created vs for this thing, is God, who also hath geuen vnto vs the earnest of the Sprite. ⁶ Therefore, we are alway holde and knowe that as longe as we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord. ⁷ For we walke in faith, and not by sight. ⁸ Neuertheless, we are of good conforte, and had leuer to remoue out of the body, and to go to dwell with the Lord.

⁹ Wherefore also we couet, that bothe dwelling at home, and remouing from home, we may be acceptable to him. ¹⁰ For we must all appeare before the iudgement seat of Christ, that euery man may receaue the things which are of his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. ¹¹ Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we bring men to the faith, and we haue approued our selues vnto God. I trust also that we are approued in your consciences. ¹² For we praise not our selues agayne vnto you, but geue you an occasion to reioice of vs, that ye may haue what to answer against them, which reioyce in the face, and not in the heart. ¹³ For whether we be folles, we are folles to God: or whether we be in our right minde, we are in our right mynde for your commoditie.

¹⁴ For the loue of Christe constrayneth vs: because we thus iudge, that yf one be dead for all, then were all dead. ¹⁵ And he died for all, that they which lyue, should not hence forth lyue vnto them selues, but vnto hym which dyed for them, and rose agayne. ¹⁶ Wherefore, hence forth know we no man after the fleshe, and if so be that we haue knownen Christ after the fleshe, now hence forth know we him so no more.

¹⁷ Therefore yf any man be in Christe, he is a newe creature. Olde thynges are passed away, beholde all thynges are become newe. ¹⁸ And all thynges are of God, which hath reconciled vs vnto him selfe clothed, not naked. ⁴ For vve also that are in this tabernacle, grone being burdened: because vve would not be spoiled, but ouerclodeth, that that vvhich is mortal, might be svalloved vp of life.

⁵ And he that maketh vs to this same, is God, vwho hath giuen vs the pledge of the Spirit. ⁶ Being bold therefore alwaies, and knowing that vvhile vve are in the body, vve are pilgrimes from God, (⁷ for vve vvalke by faith and not by sight) ⁸ but vve are bold, and haue a good vil to be pilgrimes rather from the body, and to be present vwith our Lord. ⁹ And therefore vve endeauour, vvhether absent or present, to please him. ¹⁰ For vve must all be manifested before the iudgement seat of Christ, that euery one may receiue the proper things of the body, according as he hath done, either good or euil.

¹¹ Knowing therefore the feare of our Lord vve vse persuasion to men: but to God vve are manifest. And I hope also that in your consciences vve are manifest.

¹² Vve commend not our selues agayne to you, but giue you occasion to glorie for vs: that you may haue against them that glorie in face, and not in hart. ¹³ For vvhether vve excede in minde, to God: or vvhether vve be sober, to you. ¹⁴ For the charitie of Christ vrgeth vs: iudging this, that if one died for al, then al vvere dead. ¹⁵ And Christ died for al: that they also vvhich lyue, may not novv lyue to them selues, but to him that died for them and rose agayne.

¹⁶ Therefore vve from hence forth knowv no man according to the fleshe. And if vve haue knowven Christ according to the fleshe: but novv vve know him no more.

¹⁷ If then any he in Christ a nev creature: the old are passed, behold al thynges are made nev. ¹⁸ but al of God, vvhich hath reconciled vs to him self by Christ:

naked. ⁴ For, wee that are in this tabernacle, do grone, being burdened, not for that we would bee vnclodeth, but clothed vpon, that mortalitye might bee swallowed vp of life. ⁵ Now hee that hath wrought vs for the selfe same thing, is God, who also hath giuen vnto vs the earnest of the Spirit.

⁶ Therefore we are alwayes confident, knowing that whilst wee are at home in the body, wee are absent from the Lord. ⁷ (For wee walke by faith, not by sight.) ⁸ We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. ⁹ Wherefore we labour, that whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him. ¹⁰ For we must all appeare before the iudgement seat of Christ, that euery one may receiue the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. ¹¹ Knowing therefore the terrour of the Lord, we perswade men; but we are made manifest vnto God, and I trust also, are made manifest in your consciences. ¹² For wee commend not our selues agayne vnto you, but giue you occasion to glory on our behalfe, that you may haue somewhat to answer them, which glory in appearance, and not in heart.

¹³ For whether wee be besides our selues, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause. ¹⁴ For the loue of Christ constraineth vs, because we thus iudge: that if one died for all, then were all dead: ¹⁵ And that he died for all, that they which lyue, should not henceforth lyue unto themselves, but vnto him which died for them, and rose agayne. ¹⁶ Wherefore henceforth know we no man, after the flesh: yea, though we haue knownen Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know wee him no more. ¹⁷ Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are past away, behold, all things are become new. ¹⁸ And all things are of God, who hath reconciled vs to himselfe by Iesus Christ, and

¹⁶ How agreeth the temple of God with images? for ye are the temple of the lying God: as sayd God, I wil dwell among them, and walke ther: and I wil be their God, and they shalbe my people. ¹⁷ Wherefore come out from among them, and separate your selues, sayeth the Lord: and touche none vn cleane thing: then wil I receaue you: ¹⁸ And I wil be a Father vnto you, and ye shalbe my sonnes and daughters, sayeth the Lord almighty.

7. SEYNG then we haue suche promises dearly beloued, let vs cleanse our selues from all fylthyngnesse of the fleshe and spirite, and growe vp vnto ful holynesse in the feare of God. ² Recceae vs: we haue hurt no man: we haue wasted no mans goodes: we haue robbed no man. ³ I speake not this to condemne you: for I haue shewed you before, that ye are in our hearts, to dye, and lyue with you. ⁴ I vse great boldenes of speache toward you: I reioyce greatly in you: I am fylled with comfort, and am excedding ioyous in all our tribulation.

⁵ For when we were come into Macedonia, our fleshe had no reste, but we were troubled on euery syde: outwarde was fighytyng, inward was feare.

⁶ Neuertheless, God, that comforteth the afflicted, comforted vs at the coming of Titus. ⁷ And not by his coming only, but also by the consolation wherewith he was comforted of you, when he tolde vs your great desire, your mornyng, your feruent minde to mewarde: so that I

For vvhat participation hath iustice vvith iniquitie? or vvhat societie is there betwene light and darkenes? ¹⁵ And vvhat agreement vvith Christ and Belial? or vvhat part hath the faithful vvith the infidel?

¹⁶ And vvhat agreement hath the temple of God vvith idols? For you are the temple of the liuing God, as God saith, That I vvill dwell, and vvalk in them, and vvill be their God: and they shal be my people. ¹⁷ For the vvich cause, Goe out of the middes of them, and separate your selues, saith our Lord, and touch not the vn cleane: And I vvill receiue you. ¹⁸ And I vvill be a father to you: and you shal be my sonnes and daughters, saith our Lord omnipotent.

7. HAVING therefore these promises, my dearest, let vs cleanse our selues from al iniquation of the flesh and spirit, perfitting sanctification in the feare of God.

² Recieue vs. Vve haue hurt no man, vve haue corrupted no man, vve haue circumvented no man. ³ I speake not to your condemnation, for I said before that you are in our hartes to die together and to lye together. ⁴ Much is my confidence vvith you, much is my glorying for you: I am replenished vvith consolation: I do exceedingly abound in ioy in al our tribulation. ⁵ For also vvhen vve vvere come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but vve suffered al tribulation: vvithout, combats: vvithin, feares. ⁶ But God that comforteth the humble, did comforte vs, in the coming of Titus. ⁷ And not only in his coming, but also in the consolation, vvhervvith he vv as comforted among you, reporting to vs your desire, your vveeping, your emulation for me, so that I

7. HAVING therefore these promises (dearly beloued) let vs cleanse our selues from all filthinesse of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holinesse in the feare of God. ² Recieue vs, we haue wronged no man, we haue corrupted no man, we haue defrauded no man. ³ I speake not this to condemne you: for I haue said before, that you are in our hearts to die and lye with you. ⁴ Great is my boldnesse of speech toward you, great is my glorying of you, I am filled with comfort, I am excedding ioyfull in all our tribulation. ⁵ For when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on euery side; without were fightings, within were feares.

⁶ Neuertheless, God that comforteth those that are cast downe, comforted vs by the coming of Titus. ⁷ And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith hee was comforted in you, when he tolde vs your earnest desire, your mourning, your feruent minde toward me, rejoyced muche more. ⁸ For, thogh I made you sory with a letter, I repent not, thogh I dyd repent : for I perceave that the same epistle made you sory, thogh it were but for a season.

⁹ I nowe rejoyce, not that ye were sory, but that ye so sorowed that ye amended : for ye sorowed Godly : so that in nothing ye were hurt by vs. ¹⁰ For Godly sorowe causeth amendement vnto saluation, not to be repented of : when the worldly sorowe causeth death. ¹¹ For beholde this thinge, that ye haue bene Godly sory, what great care it hath wrought in you ? yea, how hath it caused you to cleare your selues : yea what indignation hath it caused : yea what feare : yea how great desire : yea what a feruente mynde : yea what punishment ? finally in all thinges ye haue shewed your selues, that ye are cleare in this matter. ¹² Wherefore, thogh I wrote vnto you, I dyd not it for his cause that dyd hurt, nether for his cause that was hurt : but that our good mynde towards you in the syght of God, myght appeare vnto you.

reioyced the more. ⁸ For although I made you sorie in an epistle, it repenteth me not : albeit it repented me, seeing that the same epistle (although but for a time) did make you sorie. ⁹ Now I am glad : not because you vvere made sorie, but because you vvere made sorie to penance. For you vvere made sorie according to God, that in nothing you should suffer detriment by vs.

¹⁰ For the sorow that is according to God, vvorketh penance vnto saluation that is stable : but the sorow of the vvorld vvorketh death. ¹¹ For behold this very thing, that you vvere made sorie according to God, hovv great carefulnes it vvorketh in you : yea defense, yea indignation, yea feare, yea desire, yea emulation, yea reuenge, in al things you haue shewed your selues to be vndefiled in the matter.

¹² Therefore although I vvrote to you, not for him that did the iniurie, nor for him that suffered : but to manifest our carefulnes that vve haue for you before God,

¹³ therefore vve are comforted. But in our consolation, vve did the more abundantly reioyce vpon the ioy of Titus, because his spirit vvas refreshed of al you. ¹⁴ And if to him I gloried any thing of you, I am not confounded : but as vve spake al things to you in truth, so also our glorying that vvas to Titus, is made a truth, ¹⁵ and his bowels are more abundantly toward you : remembering the obedience of you al, hovv vvith feare and trembling you receiued him. ¹⁶ I reioyce that in al things I haue confidence in you.

¹² Wherefore though I wrote vnto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appeare vnto you. ¹³ Therefore we were comforted in your comfort, yea and exceedingly the more ioyed wee for the ioy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you al. ¹⁴ For if I haue boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed but as we speake all things to you in truth, euen so our boasting which I made before Titus, is found a truth. ¹⁵ And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembreth the obedience of you all, how with feare and trembling you received him. ¹⁶ I reioyce therefore that I haue confidence in you in all things.

¹³ It is not my mynde that other be set at ease, and ye brought into combrance; ¹⁴ but that ther be egaalles now at this tyme: that youre aboundaunce maye sucker their lacke: and that their aboundaunce maye supplie youre lacke: that ther maye be equalite, ¹⁵ agreynge to that which is written: He that had moche, had not the more aboundaunce; and he that had lytell, had neuertheless.

¹⁶ Thanks be vn to God, which put the same good mynde for you in the hert of

and the poutie which had consumed them, euen to the very botome, abounded vnto their moste riche liberalitie. ³ For to their powers (I beare recorde) yea, and beyonde their power, they were willing of their owne accorde. ⁴ And prayed vs with great instance, that we wolde recasse their benefite, and suffre them to be partakers with other in ministring to the Saintes.

⁵ And this they dyd, not as we loked fore : but gaue their owne selues fyrst to the Lord, and after vnto vs, by the wyl of God. ⁶ So that we could not but desire Titus to accomple the same beneuolence among you also, euen as he had begone. ⁷ Therefore, as ye are riche in all things, in faith, and in worde, and in knowledge, and in all diligence, and in loue towards vs, euen so se that ye be plentuious in this beneuolence also. ⁸ This say I, not as commanding, but because other are so feruent, therefore proue I your loue, whether it be sincere : ⁹ For ye know the liberalitie of our Lord Iesus Christ, which though he were ryche, yet for your sakes became poore : that ye through his pouertie, myght be made ryche. ¹⁰ And I shewe my minde here in : for this is expedient for you, which began not to do only, but also to wil, a yere ago. ¹¹ Now therefore performe the thinge, that ye began to do : that as ther was in you a redynes to wyl, euen so ye may performe the dede, of that which ye haue.

¹² For yf ther be fyrst a willing mynde, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not. ¹³ Nether is it that other men shoulde be freed and you burdened. ¹⁴ But vpon like condition, at this time your abundance supplieth their lacke : that also their abundance may supply your lacke : that they may be equalitie. ¹⁵ Agreeing to that which is written, He that gathered muche, had neuer the more abundance, and he that gathered lytle, had neuertheless. ¹⁶ And thankes be vnto God, which put in the heart of Titus the same good mynde abundance of ioy, and their very deepe pouertie abounded vnto the riches of their simplicitie,

³ for according to their pover (I giue them testimonie) and aboue their pover they were willing, ⁴ with much exhortation requesting vs the grace and communication of the minierie that is done toward the saintes. ⁵ And not as we hoped, but their owne selues they gaue, first to our Lord, then to vs by the wyl of God : ⁶ in so much that we desired Titus, that as he began, so also he wvould perfit in you this grace also. ⁷ But as in al things you abound in faith, and vword, and knowledge, and al carefulnes, moreouer also in your charitie toward vs, ⁸ I speake not as commanding : but by the carefulnes of others, approuing also the good disposition of your charitie. ⁹ For you knovv the grace of our Lord Iesus Christ, that for you he vvas made poore, whereas he vvas riche : that by his pouertie you might be riche. ¹⁰ And in this point I giue counsel : for this is profitable for you, which haue begonne not only to doe, but also to be willing, from the yere past :

¹¹ but novv perfourme ye it also in deede : that as your minde is prompt to be willing, so it may be also to performe, of that which you haue. ¹² For if the wyl be prompt : it is accepted according to that which it hath, not according to that which it hath not. ¹³ For not that other should haue ease, and you tribulation : ¹⁴ but by an equalitie. Let in this present time your abundance supplie their vwant : that their abundance also may supplie your vwant, that there be an equalitie, ¹⁵ as it is wvritten : He that had much, abounded not : and he that had litle, vwanted not.

¹⁶ And thankes be to God, that hath giuen the self same carefulnes for you in the hart abundance of their ioy, and their deepe pouertie, abounded vnto the riches of their liberalitie.

³ For to their power (I beare record) yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves : ⁴ Praying vs with much intreatie, that we would recieve the gift, and take vpon vs the fellowship of the ministring to the Saints. ⁵ And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gaue their owne selues to the Lord, and vnto vs by the will of God. ⁶ Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also. ⁷ Therefore (as ye abound in euery thing, in faith, and vterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your loue to vs) see that yee abound in this grace also.

⁸ I speake not by commandement, but by occasion of the forwardnesse of others, and to prouee the sincerity of your loue. ⁹ For yee knowe the grace of our Lord Iesus Christ, that though hee was rich, yet for your sakes hee became poore, that yee through his pouertie might be rich. ¹⁰ And herein I giue my aduice, for this is expedient for you, who haue begun before, not only to doe, but also to be ⁶ forward a yere ago. ¹¹ Now therefore performe the doing of it, that as there was a readinesse to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which you haue. ¹² For if there bee first a willing minde, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not. ¹³ For I meane not that other men be eased, and you burthened : ¹⁴ But by an equalitie : that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want, that there may be equalitie. ¹⁵ As it is written, He that had gathered much, had nothing ouer, and hee that had gathered little, had no lacke. ¹⁶ But thankes bee to God which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.
